

handmade – han(d)'meɪd – adjective

The Oxford English Dictionary defines handmade as “made by hand, and typically therefore of superior quality”.

2018 will herald Handmade's 10th year. It is the perfect place to find Australian made products. If you're looking for unique gifts and souvenirs, designer homewares, bespoke fashion or intricate jewellery, Handmade has 260 stalls of artisan Australian pieces. With a gourmet food hall full of street food vans, creating a feast for the senses and an unbeatable atmosphere of creativity and excitement.

Departing Saturday 17 March 2018

Welcome to our day tour to Canberra as we step into the world of the Handmade Markets. With 260 stalls of handmade Australian products.

This morning we travel via the Brown Mountain and make our way to Nimmitabel. Here we will stop at Bellz Café for a delicious morning tea. Leaving Nimmitabel, we continue to Cooma where we join the Monaro Highway and make our way to Canberra for the Handmade Markets.

Lunch today is your own arrangements, you may like to purchase something from the gourmet food hall or alternatively you may like a pack a picnic lunch.

On arrival we enter the markets and spend some time exploring the fantastic handmade products available. With an incredible variety of stores offering everything from homewares, gifts, fashion, accessories and food, there is sure to be something for everyone.
