

Join us for a day out to Cooma to celebrate Mother's Day

Departing Saturday 12 May

Welcome to our day tour to celebrate Mother's Day! This morning we board the coach and travel via the Brown Mountain to Cooma. On arrival we will enjoy morning tea before making our way to 'Birdsnest' - a local clothing company and distribution centre that pride themselves on being passionate about making women feel good about themselves.

After having the opportunity to have a look around and learning about Birdsnest, we make our way to Pha's Thai Kitchen, where we will enjoy a delicious Thai banquet lunch together.

After lunch, we venture to 'Raglan Gallery & Cultural Centre' where we will take in the artwork displayed as part of the John Briscoe Memorial Art Prize Exhibition. We will hear about the gallery's fascinating history, built in 1854 by James Hain, it was licensed as the Lord Raglan Inn. It then went on to become Cooma's first bank, a private hospital, a family home and now an art gallery.

In the afternoon we reboard the coach to commence our journey home after a lovely day out.
